

STANDARD 6:

Pupil Involvement

Pupil involvement in the process is key. All children are given information about dyslexia appropriate to their age and level of understanding so there is a heightened awareness and understanding within the school.

Pupil involvement is encouraged in the journey of implementing, monitoring and evaluating dyslexia friendly practices to embed them in the everyday running of their school.